

The National Service Scheme Unit -1 Organised the Annual Special Camp Program “Healthy Smiles”- An School Oral Health Program at the 100 year Old School DKZPS, Amblamogaru on 13/07/2023. The Chief Guest Dr.Ashwini Shetty, NSS Program Coordinator, Yenepoya Deemed to be University advised all the children’s to take care of the teeth. The Principal of the School Mr.Jagadish Shetty as a guest of honour remembered the support provided by the Yenepoya Group of institutions and lauded the efforts of the Healthy Smiles program. The Presiding officer Dr.Sham S Bhat, Dean, Faculty of Dentistry, and Yenepoya Dental College stressed the importance of the teeth both from the aesthetics and also from the point of view of nutrition, and advised the students to brush the teeth. Dr.Imran Pasha M , NSS Program Officer, briefed on the healthy Smiles School Oral Health program which includes oral health awareness, toothbrushing demonstration program with pit and fissure application, topical Fluoride application and restorative procedures. The the students were given the blanket referral card for further treatments. Total of 182 school children from the UKG to 8th Standard were given oral health treatment and will be on a regular follow up the NSS Team Volunteers of the Yenepoya Dental College. Total of 27 students were given oral prophylaxis,10 fluoride application, 18 sealant application, and 19 glass ionomer restorations. The Department of Public Health Dentistry, Pedodontics, Orthodontics and Prosthodontics have extended the support for the program. Mr.Abusali School SDMC Were also Present for the program. The Master of the ceremony of the program was Ms.Nazwana,NSS Volunteer and intern.

