

The National Service Scheme Unit-1, Yenepoya Dental College Organized the annual Award Distribution Ceremony for the 2017 BDS Batch of NSS Volunteers. The Event was organised at the 5th floor auditorium Yenepoya Dental College. The Program started with invocation by Mr.Shaheen NSS Volunteer and the Welcome address was given by Ms.Zeba, NSS Volunteer, followed by the annual report reading by Ms.Fathimath Ishana, NSS Volunteer. The Chief Guest for the program Ms.Geetha Kulakarni addressed all the volunteers and introduced various voluntary organizations and also stressed on student police cadet which is existing in Karnataka. Also stressed the importance of helping each other. She also praised the amount of work done by the unit. Dr.Sham S.Bhat Dean Yenepoya Dental College was the guest of honour. The event witnessed best NSS Volunteer award being away to the students and certificate completion to the batch of 2017 volunteers. The presidential address was given by Dr.Laxmikanth Chatra Principal, Yenepoya Dental College and stressed role by the NCC and NSS in his time and also stressed that student should continue the social activity even after they pass out from the professional courses. Vote of thanks was given by Ms.Aysha Sheen, NSS Volunteer, Yenepoya Dental College.

