

Press report

Valedictory ceremony of the International Conference "ICON Youth 2025" held at Yenepoya (Deemed to be university)

May the benefit of the international conference be for the youth. May it lead to personality development at the global level, said Randeep, IAS, Additional Chief Secretary, Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports, Government of Karnataka. He was speaking at the conclusion of a two-day international conference, ICON Youth -- 2025, sponsored by the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India, at YENEPOYA Deemed University on May 15 and 16. Mr Chetan R, IPS, Commissioner, Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports, the government said that this conference contributed to the advancement of knowledge of the young generation.

Honorable Vice Chancellor Dr. Vijayakumar presided over the function congratulated the organizers and all those who attended for making the conference a complete success.

Mr Madhish Parikh, Founder and Director BRICS Alliance, Dr. B. T. Nandish, Controller of Examinations, Sri Karthigeyan, Regional Director, NSS and Dr. Pratap Lingaiah, State NSS Officer were present.

Organizing Secretary of the conference Dr. Ashwini D. Shetty welcomed the dignitaries and presented the report. Dr. Divya Rani proposed a vote of thanks. NSS Programme Officers MsPriya and MrAditya compered the programme. More than 650 youth representatives from India and 5 countries participated in the conference. Karnataka

.

