

Department of Child Health Nursing, YNC & Department of Pediatrics, YMCH

Awareness Talk on Breast Feeding

Department of Child Health Nursing observed World Breast feeding week 2022 in collaboration with Department of Pediatrics ( YMCH) organized awareness talk on breast feeding. The program was held in postnatal ward of Yenepoya Medical College Hospital on 2nd of August at 10am. The awareness talk was focused on the theme “Step up for breast feeding – educate and support” which included importance of breast feeding, role of mother and family members, demonstration on techniques of breast feeding. Postgraduate students from the department of Child Health Nursing delivered the talk along with the demonstration of feeding technique. Mrs.Sharin D’Souza and Mrs.Melba Lobo, faculty from the department of Child Health Nursing clarified the queries of attendants. Total 41 beneficiaries were present including postnatal mothers and their care takers. 4 Post graduate students and 5 Undergraduate students were present .

Figure 1 awareness talk on breast feeding

Figure 2 awareness talk on breast feeding