

YENEPOYA NURSING COLLEGE
Department of Child Health Nursing
Extension activity – Observation of Breast Feeding week 2022
Report on Radio Talk

The department of Child Health Nursing , Yenepoya Nursing College observed World Breast Feeding week 2022. Faculty from the department- Dr Priya Reshma Aranha (HOD),Mrs Renita Priya Dsouza(Asst Professor stage –II), Mrs Benazeera (Asst Professor stage –II), Mrs Sharin Neetal Dsouza (Asst Professor stage –II) Mrs Melba Roshini Lobo(Asst Professor stage –I) delivered a radio talk on Breast Feeding to the general public in All India Radio , Akashwani Mangalore 100.3 FM . The radio talk was in the form of skit and included information regarding World Breast Feeding week theme 2022, significance , advantages of breast feeding , techniques of breast feeding, problems faced by mothers during feeding and its management , nutrition needs of lactating mothers and responsibility of family and community in promoting breast feeding followed by a song on breast feeding written by Dr Prashanth. The radio talk was delivered in kannada language and aired on 5th August 2022 at 11am

