

Department of Medical Surgical Nursing, Yenepoya Nursing College, Mangaluru
Report on world liver day

As a part of World liver Day, CNE was organized by Department of Medical Surgical Nursing, Yenepoya Nursing College, Mangaluru on 27th April 2022 at 9 am. The program started with prayer by Mr. P K Sahal 3rd year BSc (N) followed by formal inauguration. Ms. Bonika Surendran 2nd year MSc (N) welcomed the gathering, followed by lighting the lamp by the dignitaries Dr. Leena K C , Dean Yenepoya Nursing College, Mrs. .Revathy Samarasam, CNO Yenepoya Medical College hospital, Dr. Umarani J, Vice-Principal(Academics), Mr Gireesh G R, HOD, Dept of Medical Surgical Nursing. Mr. Gireesh G R, HOD, Dept of Medical Surgical Nursing, Yenepoya Nursing College highlighted the significance of the day. The first session on overview of ‘knowing alcoholic v/s non-alcoholic liver diseases’ was dealt by Dr. Rohith George, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Internal Medicine, Yenepoya Medical College, Mangaluru. He highlighted about common non-alcoholic liver diseases and its management. Second session was on evaluation and management of jaundice’ by Dr. Vivek Kaje, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Surgical Gastroenterology, Yenepoya Medical College, Mangaluru he has highlighted about identifying, managing and evaluation of jaundice. Third Session was on ‘Life style changes to keep your liver healthy’ by Mrs. Hezil Reema Barboza, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Medical Surgical Nursing who highlighted regarding the life styles changes and effect on liver diseases. A total of 87 members (7 faculty, 23 staff nurses, and 57 students) benefitted from this program. The programme was compered by Ms. Daisy D’Souza, lecturer, Yenepoya Nursing College. Ms. Vijayalakshmi I M.Sc (N) student delivered vote of thanks. Overall feedback from the participants was good.

Figure 1: Inauguration

Figure 2: Sessions on world liver day