

Yenepoya Nursing College

Department of Community Health Nursing, Yenepoya Nursing College with DISHA Trust and District Wenlock Hospital

Report on Observation of Sexual and Reproductive Health Awareness Day

Department of Community Health Nursing, Yenepoya Nursing College with DISHA Trust and District Wenlock Hospital, Mangaluru along with IV year B.Sc nursing students observed the Sexual and Reproductive Health Awareness Day and Medical Camp for Sri Shakthi SHG on 14th February 2022 at DISHA Trust, 6-161 VV Compound, Muluru, Panchayath, Kinnikambla, Mangaluru, between 10.30 am to 2pm. The program started with inaugural session and prayer song. Mr. Ananda S, Assistant professor, Department of Community Health Nursing, welcomed the gathering. Mrs. Nithyashree BV introduced resource person and moderated the program. The opening remark were given by Dr. Irene Veigas, Managing Trustee/ President DISHA Trust Mangaluru. The resource person Mrs. Akshatha Kamath, DSRC Counsellor, District Wenlock Hospital Mangaluru spoke on sexual and reproductive health, sexually transmitted diseases and its management. After the awareness program a medical camp was conducted to measure blood sugar, height, weight and body mass index and blood pressure. The camp concluded with health education and referral services. 50 women, 20 nursing students, 4 staff from DISHA Trust and 3 faculty from Yenepoya Nursing College was participated in the program. The participants gave positive response and appreciated the effort of organisers. The program concluded with vote of thanks.

