

Red ribbon club, Youth Red Cross Unit Yenepoya Nursing College in collaboration with KSAPS & NACO, D.K, Mangalore Blood Donors Association
Report on Observation of International Elimination of Racial Discrimination Day

Red ribbon Club & Youth Red Cross Unit Yenepoya Nursing College in collaboration with KSAPS & NACO, D.K, Mangalore Blood Donors Association Observed International day for Elimination of Racial Discrimination on 26.03.2022 at Seminar Hall, Yenepoya Nursing College. Dr Nagarathna K., NSS Coordinator, Mangalore University inaugurated the program and highlighted the importance of blood donation Chief guest Dr.Sharath Kumar Blood Bank Officer, District Hospital Wenlock, motivated the staff and students to donate blood to save lives & explained the role of the voluntary agencies and clubs providing humanitarian services.

Dr. Leena K C, Dean Yenepoya Nursing College, stressed on treating all with love, respect and compassion without discrimination of caste, creed, religion, gender & nationality.

Eminent donors who gave blood maximum times Mr. Hariprasad (95 times), Mr. Vashudev Kamath (60 times) were honored on this occasion

Ms. Daisy compered the program. Mr Fasil of 2nd BSc recited prayer, Mrs. Nithyashree B.V , Youth Red Cross, Nodal officer welcomed the gathering, Mrs.Navya ,Red Ribbon programme officer proposed vote of thanks.

Poster competition was organized on the theme of Elimination of Racial Discrimination for UG students, cash prize was awarded to winners.

Fig 1. Inauguration

Fig 2. Felicitation

Fig 3. Seminar

Fig 4. Poster competition